

HORSES HOPE for HUMANITY

Leaving hoofprints on your soul

Heart Of The Soul Weekend Retreat

Event date: June 21-22, 2014

Where: Humptulips, WA

NON-RIDING PROGRAM

At the Heart Of The Soul Weekend Retreat you can connect with the healing power of horses and gain transformational opportunities for self-exploration, healing, creativity, and fun. We specialize in Equine Guided Education, a gentle, guided learning process that draws on the intuition, empathy, and acceptance of horses to help you make challenging life transitions, achieve your goals, and find more meaning in your life.

The Horses Hope For Humanity Weekend can help you ...

- Discover your gifts, passion and purpose in life and tap into your intuition
- Build stronger personal and business relationships
- Learn about your leadership style, non-verbal communication and boundaries
- Identify and going beyond the barriers and beliefs that hold you back in life
- Experience walking your true path with support of the horse at your side
- Connect with horses and others and explore your true hearts desires

SAVE $50

Sign up by
May 30th

"Felisa was wonderful. Her calm demeanor and direct yet gentle way of asking questions helped me be comfortable in being fully open. She's ... gifted at interpreting the horses' actions as a way to guide me in taking my steps for clarity and growth." ~ Karen

*"I was able to make the incredible connection between animals and humans and to see how nonjudgmental, sensitive, and loving the animals really are. The weekend changed my outlook on life."
~ Sally A.*

SIGN UP AT

<http://www.horseshopeforhumanity.com/category/events/> or Call Felisa 360 580-1609

Facilitator Felisa Holmberg is an expert in helping people achieve life-changing breakthroughs. She's a Certified Equine Guided Educator with study and experience in directed contemplative therapy, and through her work with Horses Hope for Humanity she's able to integrate her love of horses with her passion for helping people find healing and purpose.